

While Mestrom set up her main sculpture studio in a large adjacent garage, she also transformed a large room off the kitchen into a craft room for her son Danté.

Framed artworks line one wall of the living room. Some are by Mestrom, others by friends, including an oil painting of a white dove by artist and friend Yvette Coppersmith.